PREFACE

Although continuing the series of Yale graduate directories begun in 1872, and following in general the plan of recent editions, the 1920 Alumni Directory contains several important changes.

In 1910 the first list of living non-graduates was compiled and printed, the names being given in one alphabetical list. The second edition (1914) grouped these former students by schools and classes, following the established scheme of the graduate directories. For the greater convenience of those using the lists all living graduates and non-graduates are included in the present volume.

In the lists of Yale College, the Sheffield Scientific School, and the Schools of Forestry, Medicine, Law, and Divinity, non-graduate students are listed after the graduates of each class. In the other schools, since there is no class organization, a slightly different arrangement has been followed. A detailed Table of Contents has been prepared for the assistance of those consulting the lists.

During the past year the Master of Science and higher engineering degrees have been transferred from the Sheffield Scientific School to the Graduate School; recipients of these degrees are therefore listed under the Graduate School.

An addition has been made to the locality index which should add appreciably to its value. The letters used as a key on the addressograph to indicate the various occupations have been printed in this index so that the number of Yale men in a given occupation in each city and town may be readily ascertained.

Since 1916 two changes have been made in the classification by occupations, advertising and forestry having been separated from mercantile and engineering, respectively. Available information regarding men engaged in these occupations has been used in this Directory.

Law continues to engage the largest number of graduates, 3,809 following that profession; manufacturing is second with 2,467; finance third with 2,435; while the education group comprises 2,174 and engineering, 1,913.

The statistics show little change in the general distribution of the alumni, as a comparison of the net totals of 1916 and 1920 on page 625 brings out in a striking manner. The enrollment in each section of the country has increased proportionately with the number of graduates, which shows for four years, on account of the war, about the same change as in the two years from 1914 to 1916. Six hundred and three graduates have addresses in foreign countries, China claiming the largest number (119), followed by Canada (110), Japan (88), England (63), and France (42). The distribution of non-graduates is similar to that of graduates.

Of a total of 20,490 living graduates addresses are recorded for all but one and three-tenths per cent. The number of living non-graduates (students who have remained at the University long enough to be included in the annual catalogue) is 7,675; 832 of this number have no addresses in this book.

During the years since 1916 there have been an unusual number of changes of location and occupation, due largely to the war. The completeness of this book testifies to the active cooperation between alumni and their organizations and officers, and the Secretary's Office, in its effort to keep the lists as accurate as possible. The facilities of the office are utilized more and more by the alumni with the resultant exchange of information. It is of great assistance to receive prompt notification of changes of address or occupation; alumni are urged to keep the Secretary's Office advised regarding themselves and others, in order that the address lists and files may be up-to-date.

Miss Marion L. Phillips, Assistant Alumni Registrar, has been responsible for the alumni lists since 1916 and it is to her untiring and efficient efforts that their accuracy and completeness is largely due.

The information in this Directory is corrected to June 30, 1920.

It is requested that the lists be used only for University and personal purposes, and not as a general mailing list for advertising.

LOTTIE G. BISHOP,

Alumni Registrar.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
YALE UNIVERSITY,

SEPTEMBER 15, 1920.

During the past year the Master of Science and night engineering degrees have been conferred from the Sheffield Scientific School to the Graduate School recipients in these degrees are likewise listed under the Graduate School.

An addition has been made to the faculty index which should add appreciably to the value of the index as a key to the bibliography to indicate the various occupations have been printed in this index to that the number of Yale men in a given occupation in each city and town may be readily ascertained.

Some two hundred names have been added to the classification by occupational specialties and formerly having been grouped under scientific and engineering respectively. A valuable information regarding men engaged in these occupations has been added in this Directory.

Low countries to engage the largest number of graduates, 2,500 following that was followed manufacturing is second with 2,167; finance third with 2,122; while the other two groups comprise 2,174 and engineering, 1,912.

The statistics show little change in the general distribution of the alumni, as a comparison of the list totals of 1916 and 1920 on page 622 brings out in a striking manner. The enrollment in each section of the country has increased proportionately with the number of graduates, which shows for four years on account of the war, about the same change as in the two years from 1914 to 1916. Six hundred and three graduates have addresses in foreign countries. China claims the largest number (110), followed by Canada (110), Japan (88), England (67), and France (47). The distribution of non-graduates is similar to that of graduates.

Of a total of 20,740 living graduates addresses are recorded for all but one and three were per cent. The number of living non-graduates (students who have remained in the Directory) is 7,772; 622 of this number have an address in this book.

During the years since 1910 there have been an unusual number of changes of location and occupation due partly to the war. The completeness of this book relative to the active organizations, clubs and their organizations and officers, and the Secretary's Office in its effort to keep the lists as accurate as possible. The facilities of the office are utilized more and more by the alumni with the resultant exchange of information. It is

NOTE: Previous Yale degrees with the year of their award are printed in parentheses following a graduate's name.

A dagger (†) at the left of a name indicates that a non-graduate has been enrolled with his class because he has received an honorary degree from the University. The number of such names included in each class list is indicated by the figure at the right of the plus sign (+) bracketed with the figure indicating the total number of graduates in the class. The other total gives the present enrollment of the class.

Class Secretaries are printed in bold face type and Alumni Fund Agents in italics. Bold face italics are used when one man holds both offices.

SUMMARY

Living Graduates with the degree of Bachelor of Arts.....	9,910
Living Non-Graduates	1,873

SHEFFIELD SCIENTIFIC SCHOOL

NOTE: Previous Yale degrees with the year of their award are printed in parentheses following a graduate's name.

A dagger (†) at the left of a name indicates that a non-graduate has been enrolled with his class because he has received an honorary degree from the University. The number of such names included in each class list is indicated by the figure at the right of the plus sign (+) bracketed with the figure indicating the total number of graduates in the class. The other total gives the present enrollment of the class.

Class Secretaries are printed in bold face type and Alumni Fund Agents in italics. Bold face italics are used when one man holds both offices.

In the lists of non-graduates, the years printed in parentheses denote the years of registration at Yale.

GRADUATE SCHOOL

NOTE: Degree recipients are grouped in the following order: Masters of Arts, Masters of Science, Civil Engineers, Mechanical Engineers, Engineers of Mines, Electrical Engineers, Metallurgical Engineers, Doctors of Public Health, Doctors of Philosophy. By a recent vote the degree of Master of Science and the engineering degrees were transferred from the Scientific School to the Graduate School.

Previous Yale degrees with the year of their award are printed in parentheses following a graduate's name.

At the conclusion of each class list is printed at the right of the page in parentheses the total number graduating, and to the right of that figure without parentheses, the present enrollment of the class.

Names of recipients of the Certificate of Public Health are printed just preceding the lists of non-graduates.

The names of former students in the Graduate School are listed under the year during which they were last enrolled in this School. Students enrolled in teachers' and special courses in the Graduate School, not candidates for a degree, are not included.

SCHOOL OF THE FINE ARTS

NOTE: Previous Yale degrees with the year of their award are printed in parentheses following a graduate's name.

At the conclusion of each class list is printed at the right of the page in parentheses the total number graduating, and to the right of that figure without parentheses, the present enrollment of the class.

Many students in the Schools of Fine Arts and of Music, who completed regular courses of study, extending over a number of years, received from the Faculty of the given School certificates attesting the fact. These students are grouped under the heading Certificate Holders and precede the lists of non-graduates. In both groups of former students the names are listed under the years during which they were last enrolled in this School.

SCHOOL OF MUSIC

NOTE: Previous Yale degrees with the year of their award are printed in parentheses following a graduate's name.

At the conclusion of each class list is printed at the right of the page in parentheses the total number graduating, and to the right of that figure without parentheses, the present enrollment of the class.

Many students in the Schools of Fine Arts and of Music, who completed regular courses of study, extending over a number of years, received from the Faculty of the given School certificates attesting the fact. These students are grouped under the heading Certificate Holders and precede the lists of non-graduates. In both groups of former students the names are listed under the years during which they were last enrolled in this School.

Organization: Yale in China is an educational institution in the city of Changsha, the capital of Hunan Province, China; planned and directed by Yale graduates.

It has no organic relation to Yale University, though its Trustees and Council include many members of the Yale Corporation and the University faculty.

Its support is derived from (1) subscriptions from Yale graduates and their friends; (2) annual grants from the China Medical Board of the Rockefeller Foundation and from the Commonwealth Fund; (3) tuition and medical fees in Changsha; (4) annual grants from the Hunan Provincial Government.

Scope: Instruction is divided between two departments, the academic and the medical:

THE COLLEGE OF YALE IN CHINA (Academic Department) includes
THE COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
THE PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT

THE HUNAN-YALE COLLEGE OF MEDICINE (MEDICAL DEPARTMENT), INCLUDES THE COLLEGE OF MEDICINE
THE HOSPITAL
THE SCHOOL FOR NURSES

Formal instruction commenced in the College Preparatory Department on November 16, 1906; in the College of Arts on September 10, 1914; in the Medical Preparatory School on December 14, 1914; in the College of Medicine on September 10, 1916; and in the School for Nurses in December, 1913. GENERAL INDEX OF NON-GRADUATES

In the following alphabetical index of living non-graduates the name is followed by the date of the Class with which each was identified at Yale, or, in the case of students in the Graduate, Art and Music Schools, and some of the early students in other schools, the date of their last connection with the given school.

Students in the College are listed with no distinguishing mark except the year; in the case of students of other schools, italic letters follow the year indicating the school according to the following scheme: art, Art; d, Divinity; f, Forestry; l, Law; m, Medical; mus, Music; s, Scientific; g, Graduate.

Special students are listed with the letters sp preceding the initial of the school.

Certificate holders are designated by a double dagger (‡) preceding the year.
